

Response to possible denial of admittance or stay and to entry ban

① Use this form if you are applying for your first residence permit after you have arrived in Finland. Attach this form to your residence permit application.

① If you are not granted a residence permit in Finland or if you lack other grounds for residing in Finland, you may be returned to your home country or country of permanent residence. If the decision on your application is negative, you will also receive a decision on denial of admittance or stay. In addition, an entry ban may be imposed on you for a fixed term or until further notice, prohibiting entry into Finland or into the entire Schengen area. For more information, see migri.fi/deportation-and-denial-of-admittance-or-stay (in Finnish, Swedish and English)

① If you object to being denied admittance or stay because your human rights or safety would be endangered in your home country or country of permanent residence, you can lodge an application for international protection with the police or the border control authorities. You cannot apply for international protection with this form.
